Good morning yesterday
you wake up and time has slipped away
and suddenly it's hard to find
the memories you left behind.
Remember?
Won't you remember.

The laughter and the tears
the shadows of misty yesteryears
the good times and the bad you've seen and all the others in between
Remember?
Won't you remember the times of your life.

Reach back for the pain and the sorrow
put them away in your mind
for memories are time that you borrow
to spend when you get to tomorrow.

Here comes the setting sun
the seasons are passing one by one
and suddenly it's hard to find
the memories you left behind.
Remember?
Won't you remember the times of your life?

Board works with Administration

Behind every school system there is a Board of Education. This year's Board, headed by Burt Hillier, was faced with insufficient class space, which resulted in using the junior high's portables.

With BHS back on one shift, the Administration must handle a larger group of students at once. They also have fewer supplies, due to a tighter budget.

Teaching can be enjoyable

SOCIAL STUDIES--
Students learn about their past
while preparing for their future.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION--
This course helps to interest
students in a leisure time
activity.

HOME ECONOMICS-- Prepares a student to be independent.

Library helps widen knowledge

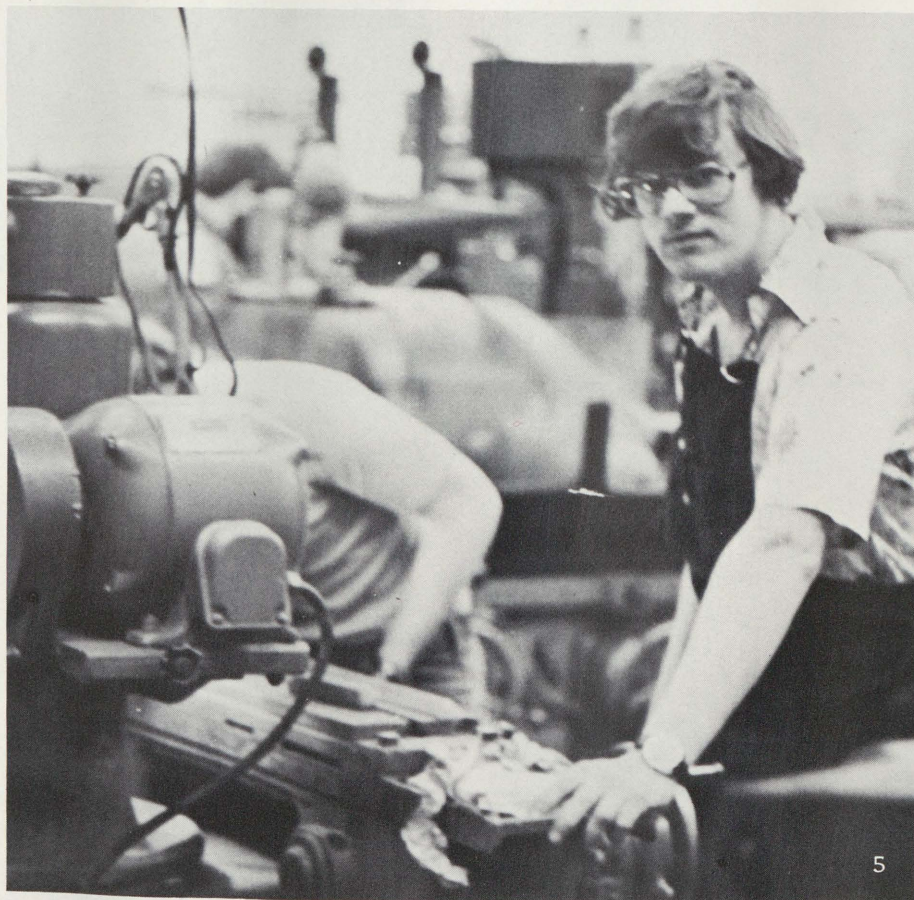

Business classes prepare students for the business world. Co-op provides work experience for students. To take Co-op, you must be enrolled in a related class. Work Study helps students on an individual basis. The BHS library is a great place for research and study.

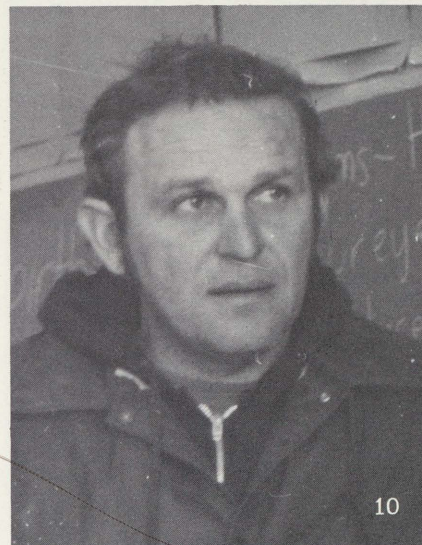

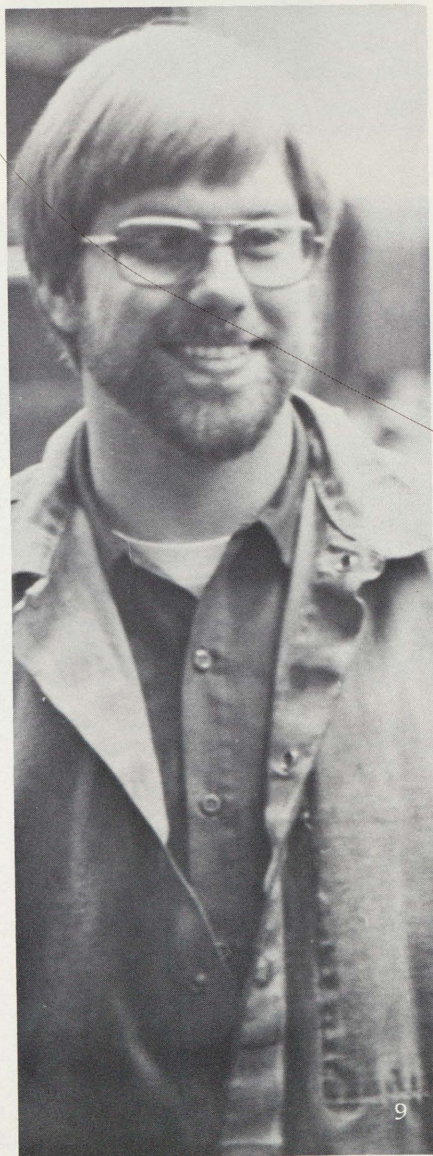

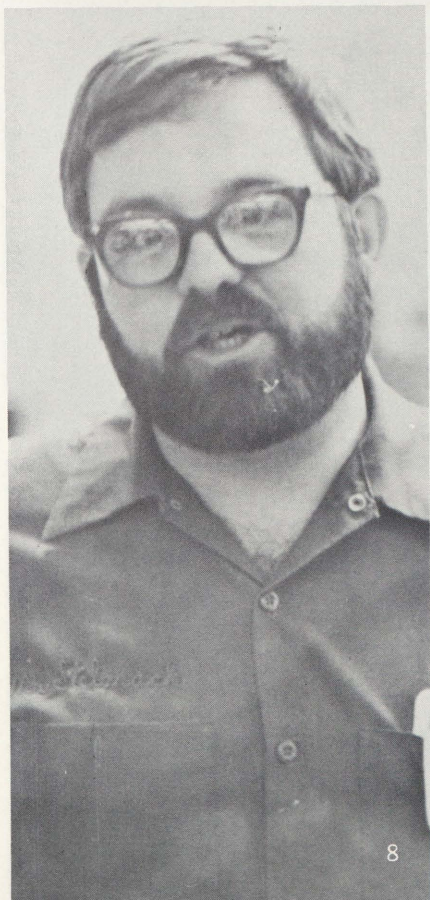

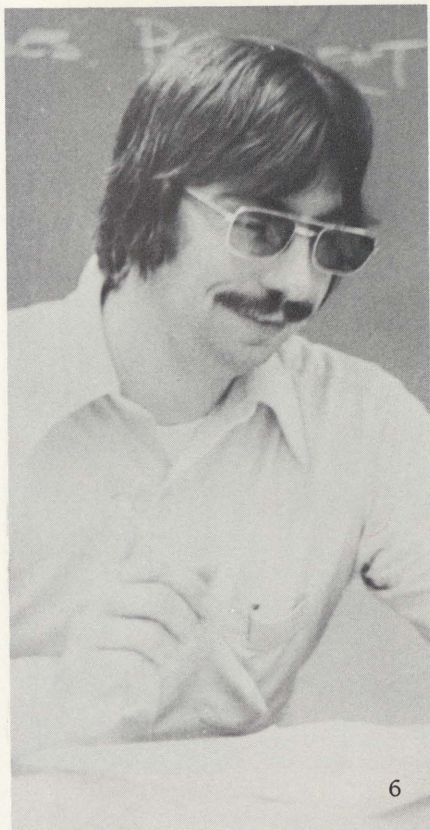

Learn a trade in shop class

INDUSTRIAL ARTS-- students may study many different areas in this field. A few of the classes are metal, electronics, wood, and drafting.

TRI-C-- provides students with the skills that are needed in their future jobs. Enrolled students are from Bridgeport, Birch Run, and Frankenmuth.

1. Mr. Belvin, don't you like my project? 2. Mr. Trisch has just heard about our snow day. 3. M. Kocks listens carefully as Mr. Belvin explains how he can improve his work. 4. Mr. Trisch looks worried as his students use some new shop materials. 5. D. Darling learns how to be a supervisor while the headless student works. 6. Mr. Dryden smiles at a student's exam. 7. This Birch Run student learns how to fix a muffler. 8. Mr. Stelmach, I didn't mean to break that teacher's car, really! 9. Mr. Eleazer, Midasize it! 10. Mr. Adams teaches Building Trades and this year his class built a house.

Cultures meet in languages

Bridgeport High School offers two foreign languages--Spanish and German. "The Student will not only learn the German language, but also become familiar with the cultures of German speaking countries,"--Mrs. Becker.

The music department teaches students vocal and instrumental skills. It gives them much valuable experience in the musical field.

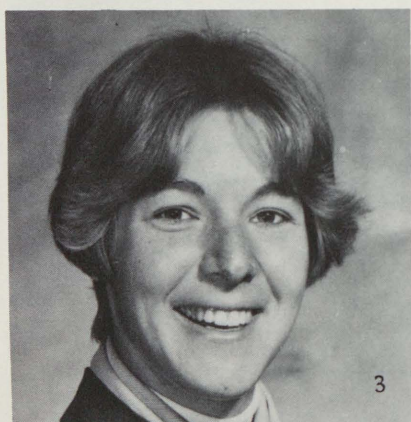

The speech department helps students to speak and listen better.

Tough season hits J.V.s

Starting the season, the J.V. Football team had a win over Chesaning. They lost the next 5 games and then came back with 2 more wins to finish with 3 wins and 5 losses.

Leading performers were: J. Zuzula, B. Becker, B. Yare and Rubén Garza.

"Although the record shows we didn't achieve much on the game field, we did achieve much as people. This, we think, is due to the coaching of two great coaches whose guidance didn't end on the practice field, but continued off the field. Coaches Snarey and Trombley will always be remembered by this J.V. Football team"--B. Millar.

Tiny, tough Bearcats tear up opponents, finish season 6-3

"This year's Varsity Football Team had the most wins, 6 wins, 3 losses; and although they were small in size, they had a great attitude. Senior pride and leadership was high."
--Coach Walderzak.

Steve Donald, this year's MVP, was also elected to the WPC 1st team. The most improved players this year were Tim Ostler and Bob Bull. The Most Valuable Team Member was Terry Stuart. Leading performers for this year's team were-S. Donald, T. Stuart, L. Bentley, B. Ferchau, G. Housner and G. Barber.

"The tiny Bearcats are the best ever!"--Mr. Walderzak.

Golf swings!

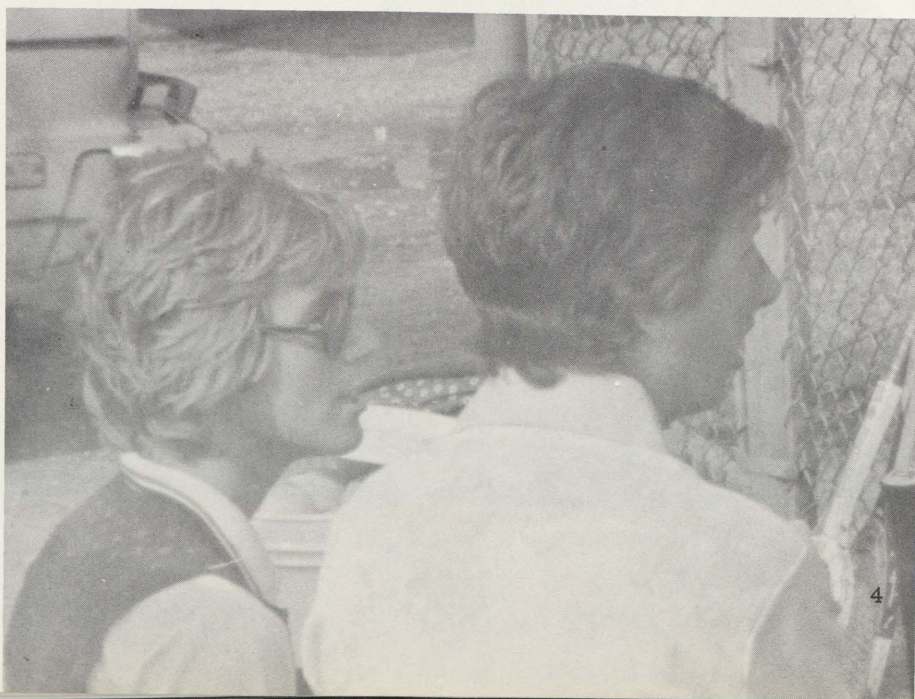

"This was my first year as golf coach. The time spent practicing was the same but the weather played a bigger factor then ever this year. We had a fine season,"--Mr. Jurgens. Doug Neumann, returning golfer, was the MVP for this year's team. They placed 5th in the WPC--and 10th out of 20 teams at the Oscoda Tournament. "All of the golfers improved their scores."--Coach Jurgens.

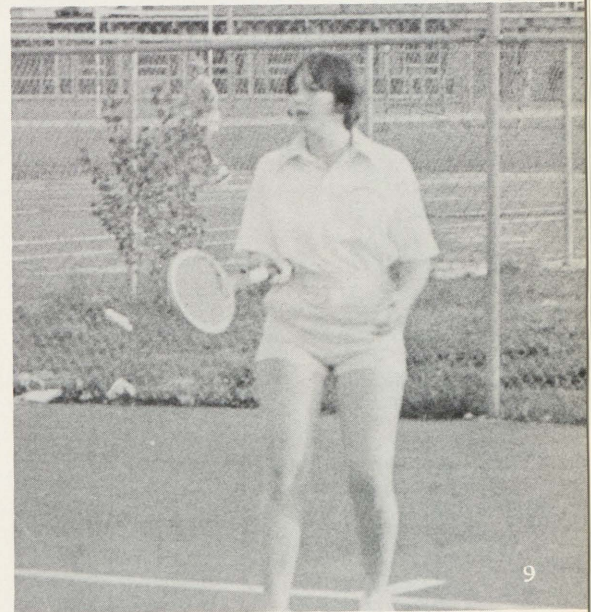

Girls gain experience in first year of competition

"We had a very good year, just in the fact that we had the first girls' tennis team. This was a great accomplishment." --Mrs. Laura Becker. The girls finished their season with a 1 win-6 loss record. The MVP for this year was Dotti Alsgaard. Mrs. Becker--"All of the girls were leading performers. Dotti Alsgaard had the best individual win-loss record (3 wins), and was the only player to win her first round match in both the Conference match and the Regionals. Laura O'Brien was crucial because of her experience and Juli Kochan managed to win a match for us too." Mrs. Becker also said she thinks the underclassmen will show their value even more next year.

1. "You know, if I fall at match point, I can win the game!"-D. Alsgaard. 2. Wow, where'd that bird come from?-D. Vincent. 3. MVP D. Alsgaard is ready and waiting to show her opponent who's boss! 4. Homecoming adds life

"Times of Our Lives", theme for the 1976-77 Homecoming, was carried forth very well with the theme song sung by Jeff Brown.

The attendants, Nancy Koch, Dawn Divo, Ellen Real, and Lynda Krukowski rode their respective class floats, preceding the lovely senior class float. Queen Nancy Bertram and her court, Dawn Sanderson, Cindy Weston, Connie Bohl and Linda Flory rode on their float symbolizing a Greek garden. The first place was captured by the Sophomore's clock float and second place was taken by the Senior class. Third place went to the Juniors. On October 8, our Homecoming night, our Bearcat team played MacArthur. Although we were beaten, 29-7, it was one time in our lives we will long remember.

'78 starts out right!

The Junior class started out the 76-77 year well by winning the Spirit Jug during Spirit Week. Two of their fall projects have been maintaining a booth at Bridgeport Days, and a car wash. The officers are: President-Dave Kramer, Vice President-Karyn Ashton, Secretary-Cheri Grinnell, and Treasurer-Lynn Diggan. This year, Junior Class Advisor is Mrs. Houston.

Tiny but tough

The 1976 Homecoming was an emotional and memorable experience for the seniors at B. H. S. Here are a few of the participants that helped make this Homecoming a great success: Queen - Nancy Bertram, Court - Dawn Sanderson, Cindy Weston, Linda Flory, and Connie Bohl. Escorts - Craig Atkins, Mark Davis, Bob Ferchau, and Andy Elizalde. To add the excitement and pep were the 1976-1977 cheerleaders and the 1976 football team.

Seniors celebrate the end two ways

SENIOR BANQUET--"This year the banquet was held at the Country Squire in Flint. The food was excellent and everyone seemed to be having a good time"--Mr. Manuel Lopez, Class Advisor.

Master of Ceremonies was Greg Arciniega. Kim Crisp said the invocation, Liz Klein and Mike Weslock awarded Senior Survey and Pam Sokolowski announced Hall of Fame. Mary Dolson and Jeff Stewart recited the Will, Jeff Brown, and Brian Mielke read the Prophecy.

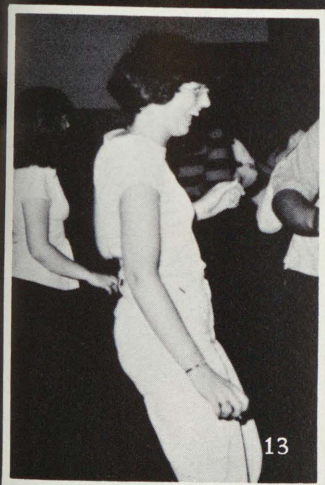

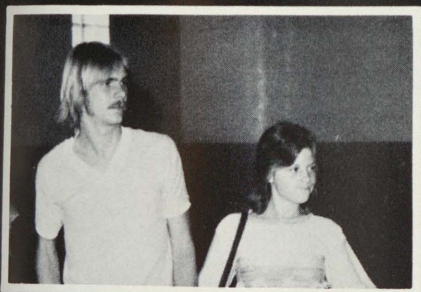

"I hope their banquet will be remembered"--M. Lopez.

The Senior Party was held at Spaulding Hall.

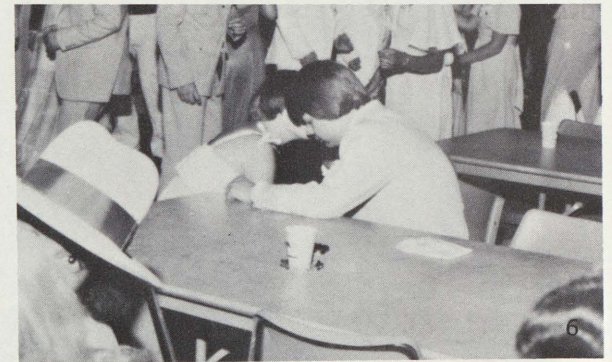

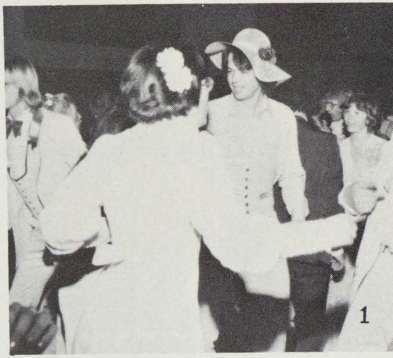

"The party turned out great. The seniors seemed to be enjoying themselves and really having fun,"--Senior Class Advisor Mr. Lopez.

The entertainment was provided by the band "Touloose." Refreshments included pizza from Little Caesars.

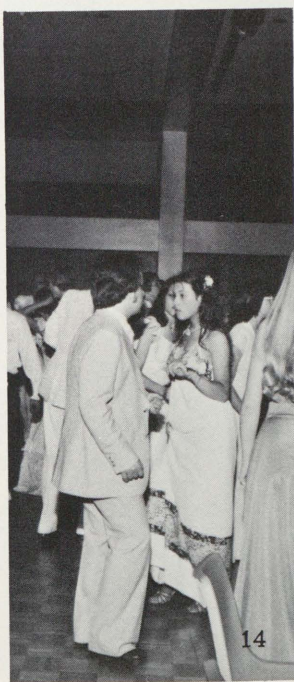

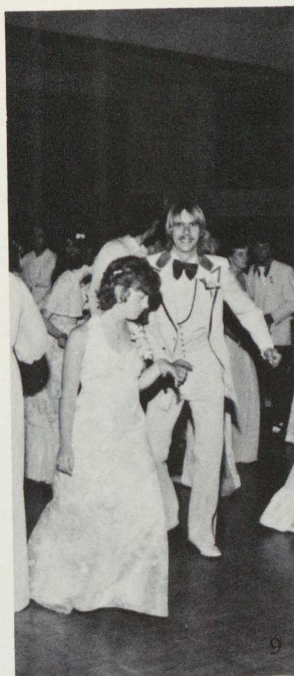

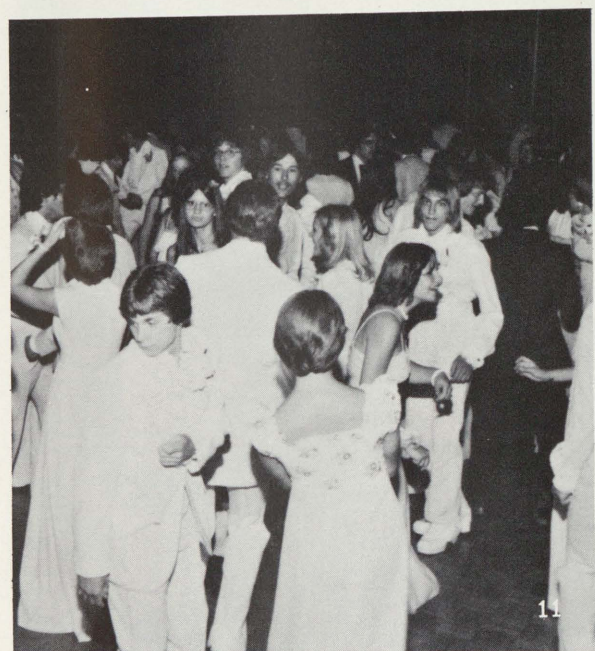

1. N. Bertram happily announces the special guests at banquet. 2. They think I have a big nose, D. Newman. 3. N. Bertram and G. Arciniega thank Mr. Lopez for all of his help. 4. Oh boy this food is great, P. Perkins, J. Moore, T. Donsang. 5. D. Sanderson proudly tells the class about the years accomplishments, while G. Arciniega laughs at her. 6. In the year 1981, FLASH Bob Bull speaks, J. Brown. 7. Did I say something I wasn't supposed to? T. Diggan, C. Rice. 8. The punch of the evening. 9. Don't ask me, I don't know, R. McDivitt. 10. Let's go sit over there, M. Fiting, and date. 11. Mr. Lopez opens a gift given to him by the senior class, D. Holihan, N. Bertram, T. Klopff, C. Rice. 12. This really looks good, D. Gonzales. 13. I think I am going to die laughing, J. Ostler. 14. A real lively group, D. Forbes, date, L. DePrekel, P. Morgan, date, M. Nestell, and date. 15. The band of the evening was Toulouse. 16. I think I am going to fall asleep in about two minutes, L. Ashton. 17. A very content group.

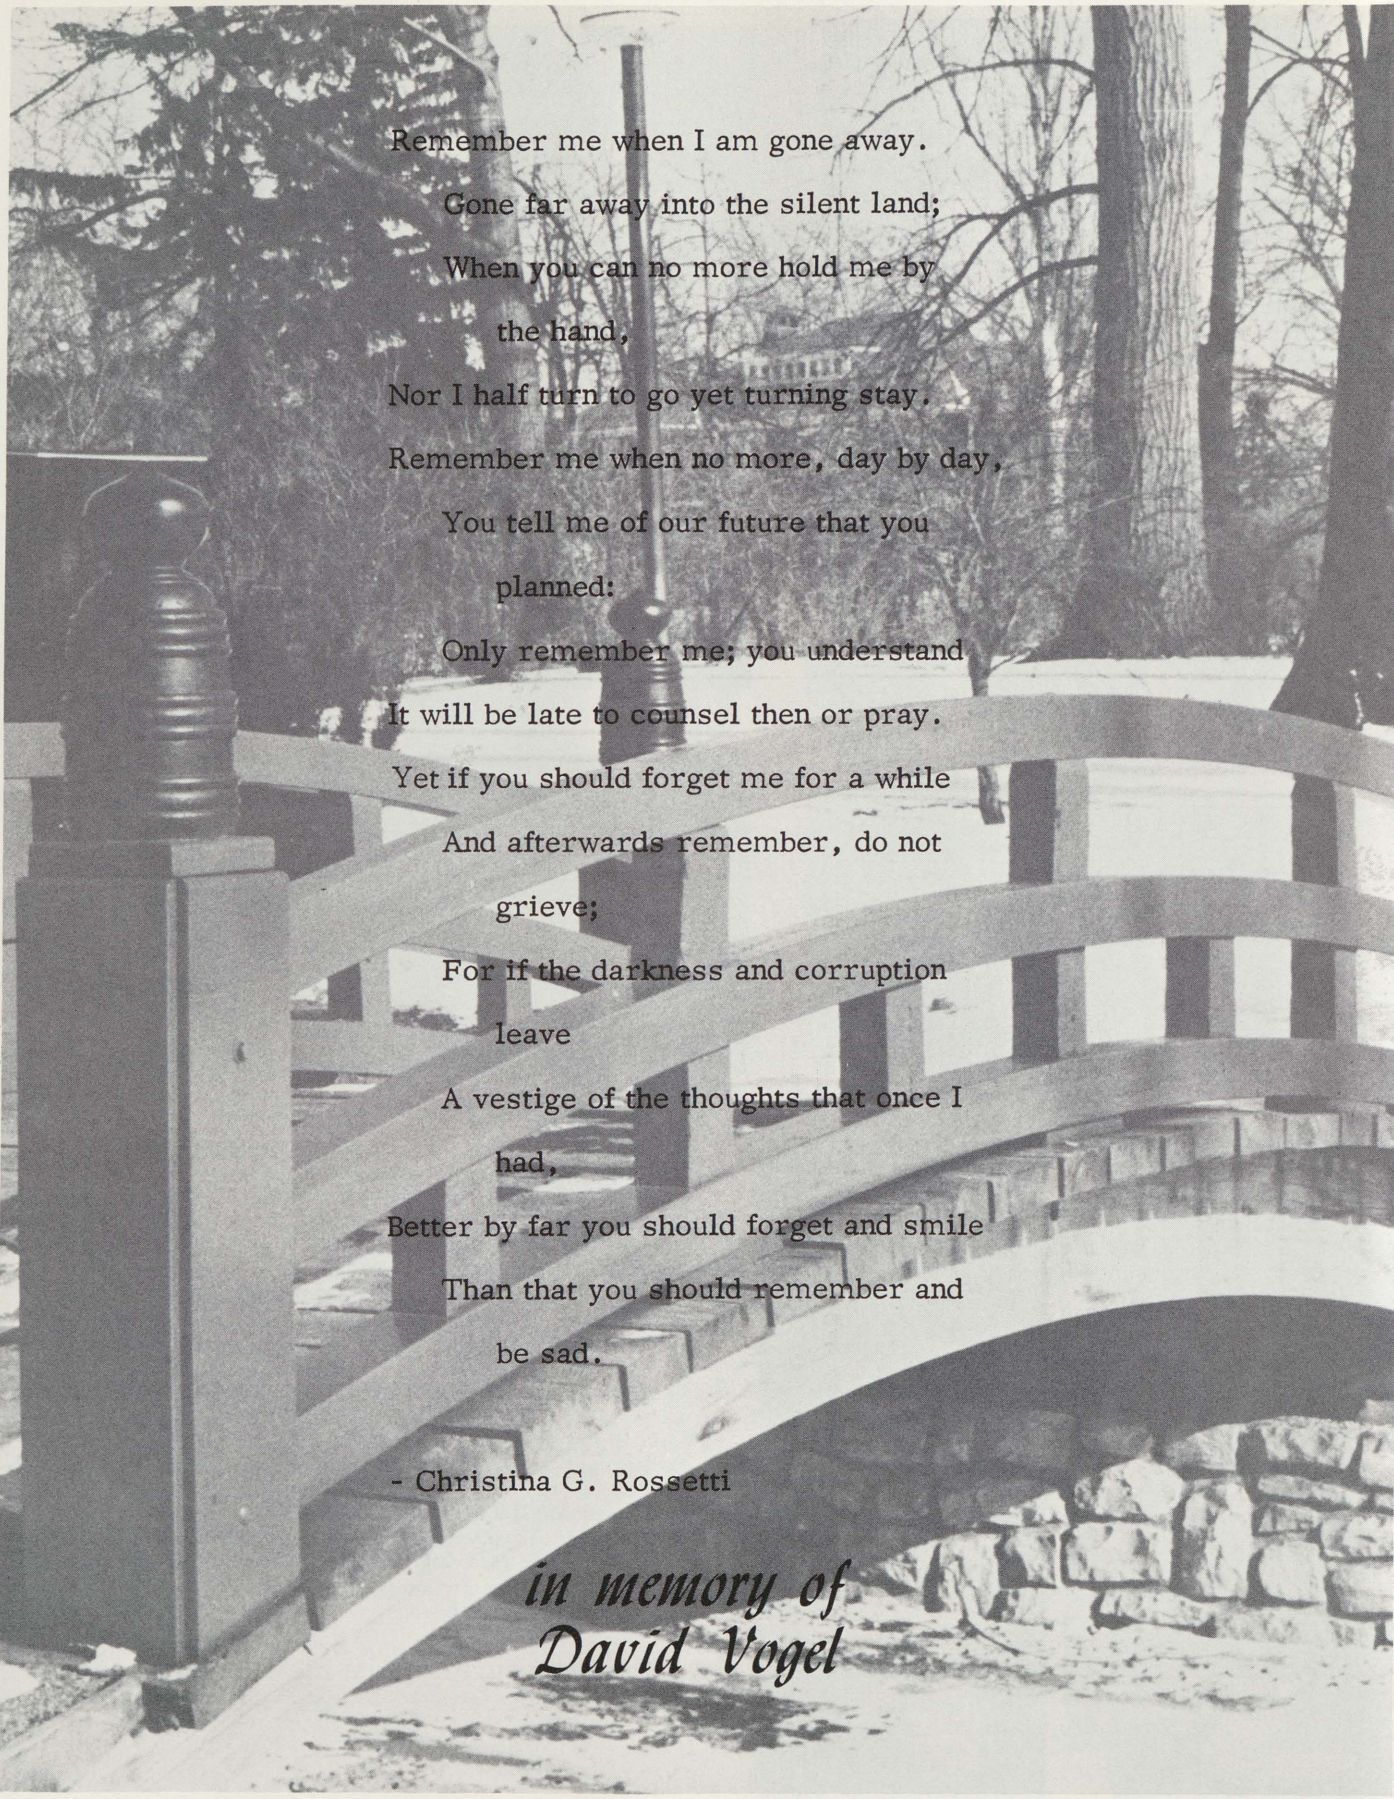

Westwood helps make '77 Prom memorable

May 26 was the big dance for the class of '77. The Blue Room in the Civic Center was the setting for Prom this year. Some students thought the band was lacking but the mood was happy and everyone seemed to be having fun. Entertainment was furnished by "Westwood", and students said they thought the elevated walkway and escalator added class. "It was like going to an opening night show on Broadway or something," said one. Before Prom everyone ate at the classiest restaurant they could find, and afterwards, most went to private parties.

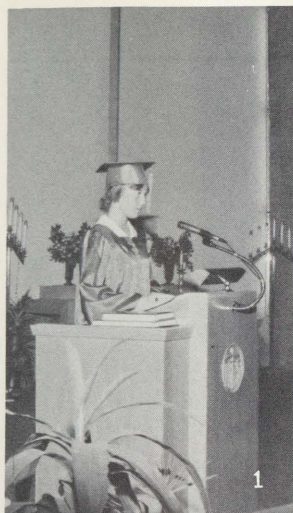

1. I bet you thought I was Dawn, J. Stewart, J. Ostler. 2. Do you think the excitement will ever wear off? S. Fairchild and date. 3. Would you mind if we sat down for just one dance? B. Polom and date. 4. G. Arciniega tells another one of his fantastic jokes, S. Donald and, E. Truckner. 5. Connie, did you see what he just did? B. Good, C. Hitzman. 6. Dave, I think your mother is watching us, D. Fordyce, A. Barnes. 7. John, if you want to bump you are going to have to get off my dress, C. Bohl, J. Johnson. 8. Do you think maybe I can imagine he isn't sitting behind me, N. Gammon, L. Beranek. 9. And here we go again, M. Fiting and her date. 10. Everybody stands back to let Pam do her thing, P. Lentner. 11. After all this excitement my stomach could use some Alka Seltzer, G. Heilbronn. 12. When I snap my fingers you will not remember anything I just said, N. Bertram, B. Smith and C. Hitzman. 13. Everybody enjoys it when the music slows down to a more relaxing tempo, D. Fordyce, A. Barnes, G. Garcia. 14. Either my heels are too short or my dress is too long, K. Kay and date.

Remember me when I am gone away.
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by
the hand,
Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more, day by day,
You tell me of our future that you
planned:
Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not
grieve;
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

Seniors hold service

Bridgeport High School held their fourteenth annual Baccalaureate Sunday, June 5, 1977, in Bridgeport Community Church.

The BHS Art Choir sang during the service. A medley of songs was sung by seniors Kelly Kay, Linda Rau, Mary Nestell and Gail Schroder. "Their music was enjoyed by everyone,"-- Senior Lori DePrekel.

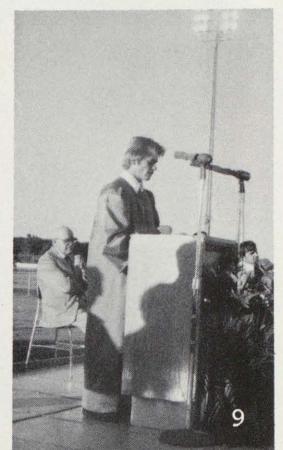

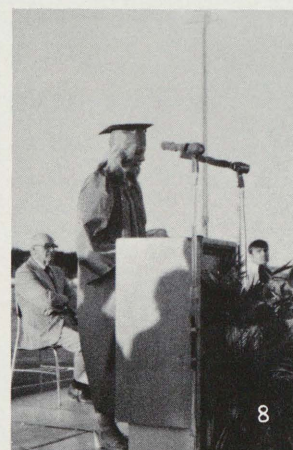

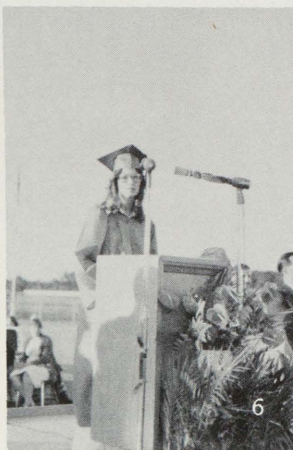

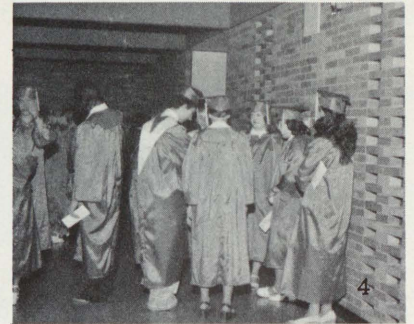

"I was surprised at the number of seniors that came,"--Mr. Lopez.

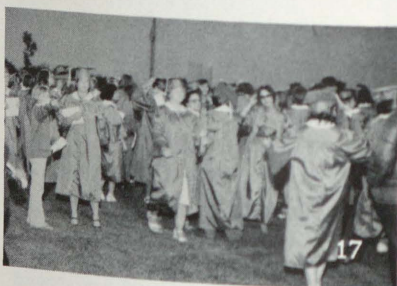

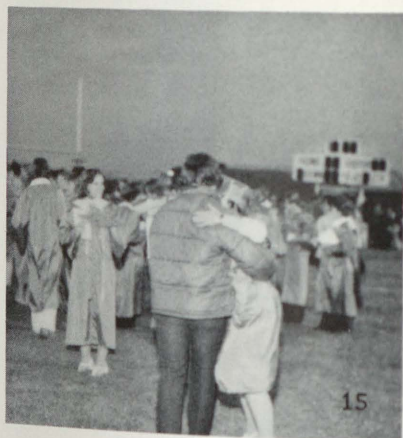

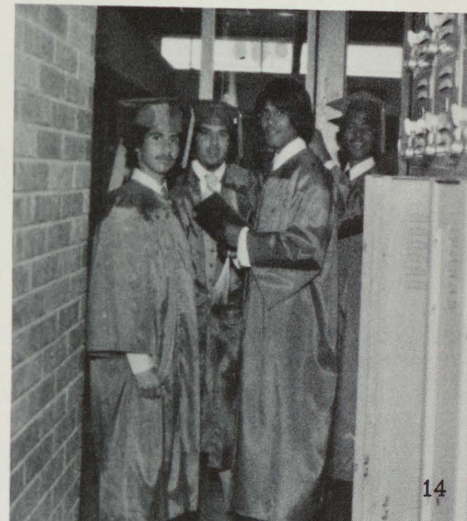

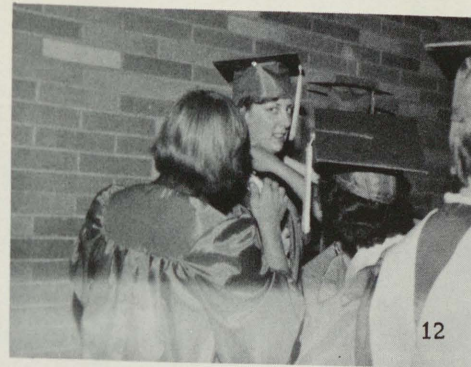

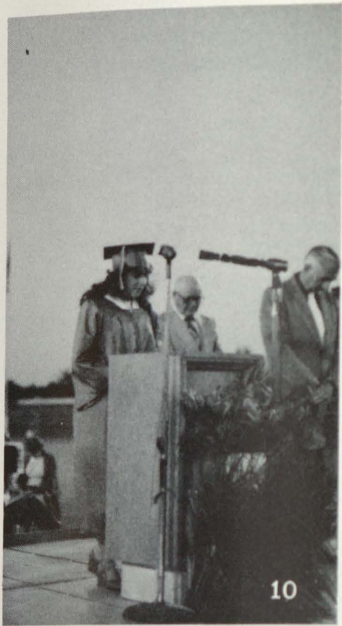

Class joins for last time

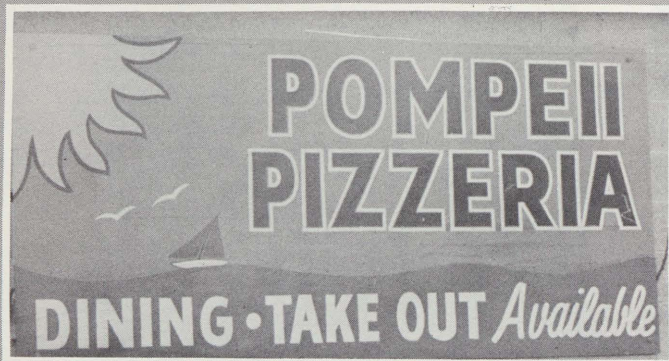

June 9 was the big night for 360 BHS seniors.

This was the night of their graduation. The fourteenth annual commencement, held on the football field, was centered on the senior class theme "Times of Our Lives." It began with the graduation honor band playing, while the graduates came upon the field. Debbie Boersma gave the Invocation. Class orators were Lynette Miller, Craig Atkins, Tammy Kaiser, and Elizabeth Klein. Jeffrey Brown sang "Times of Our Lives". The honor students were recognized by Mr. Strait and then Mr. Atkins presented the 1977 graduates with their diplomas. Mr. Lopez, senior class advisor, handed a lovely Hawaiian flower to each graduating girl. Dawn Sanderson gave the Benediction and then the happy graduates ran to the goal post and threw their caps in the air. They were congratulated by their family and friends.

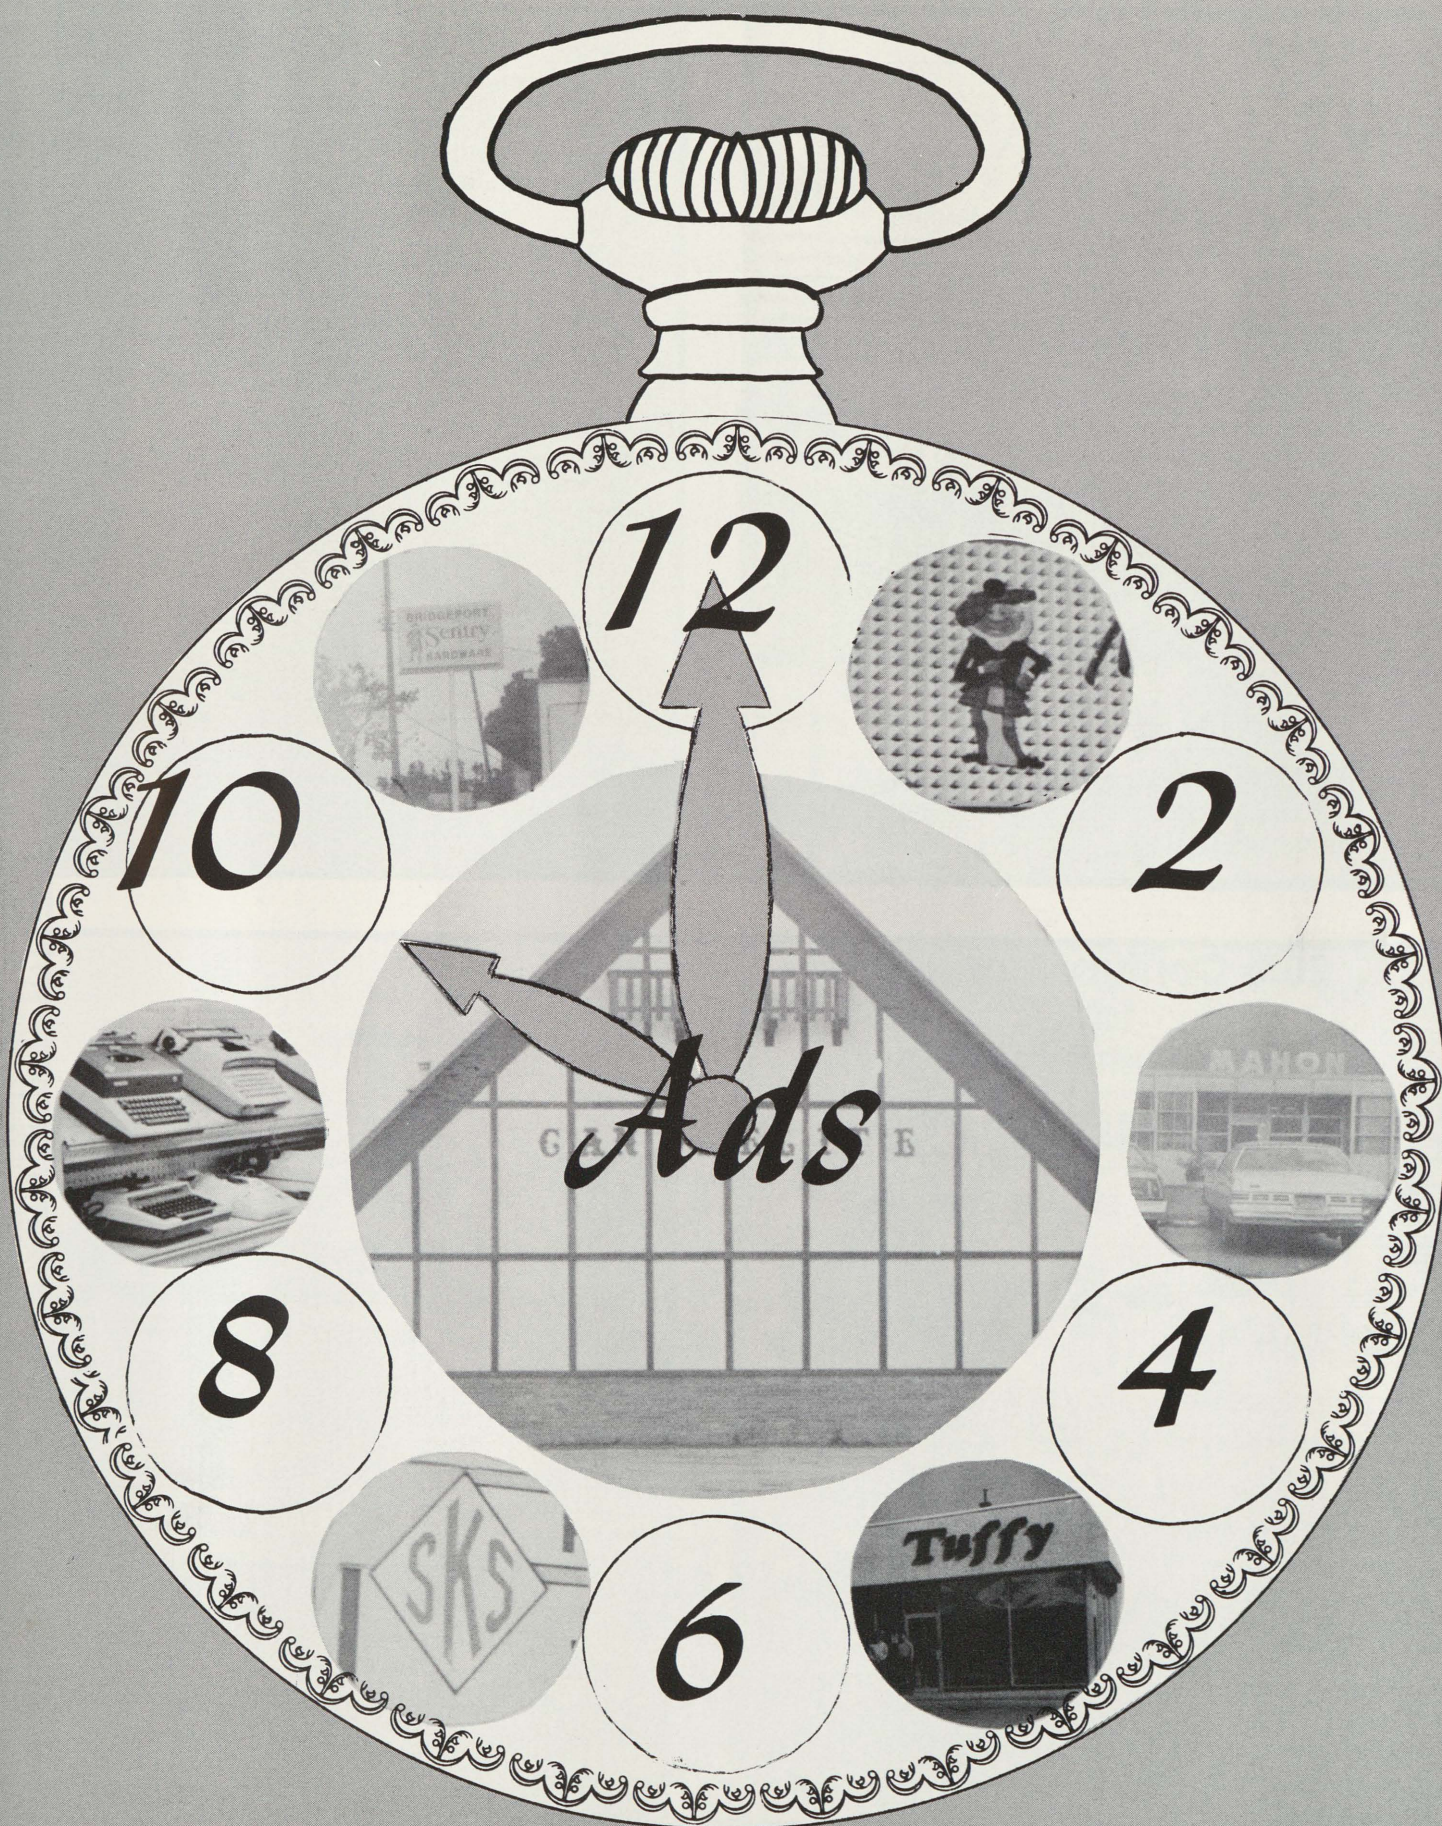

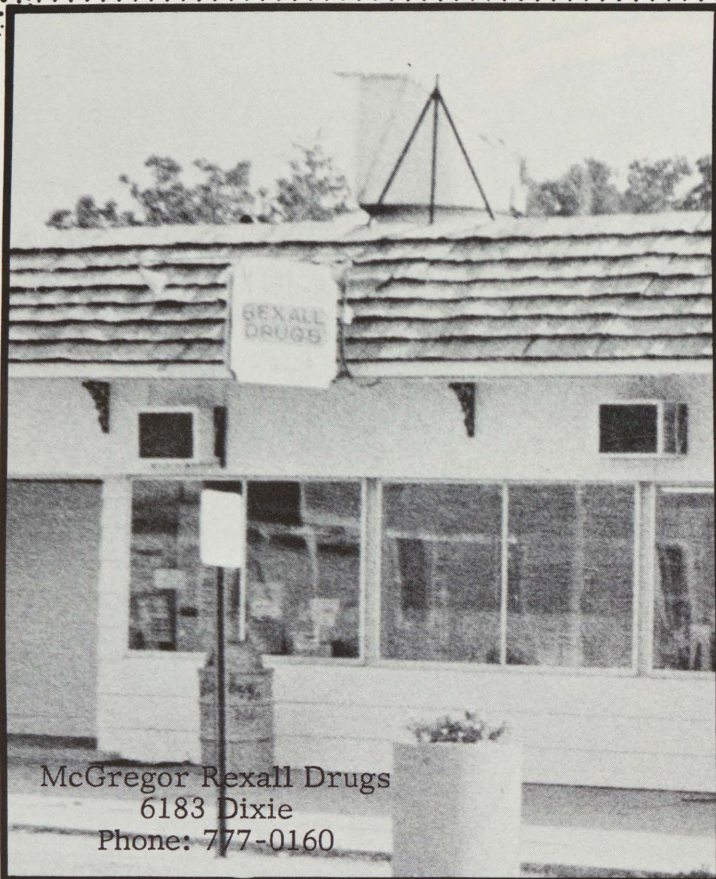

1. Classmates help make G. Arciniega feel like a real graduate. 2. Friends help L. O'Brien make sure her gown is in perfect order. 3. During Benediction, the entire class stands to give thanks for the things that have been fulfilled for them. 4. Groups of friends await anxiously for the big moment. 5. K. Smith passes her hat around to let everyone sign it, D. Moulton, E. Truckner. 6. L. Miller lets her feelings out during her speech to the class. 7. E. Klein brings back a lot of old memories for everyone. 8. B. Helmer speaks on behalf of the exchange students. 9. C. Atkins brings us up from the first day we ever saw a school. 10. D. Sanderson helps to give us strength to go on and succeed in the world around us. 11. T. Kaiser says a lot about how the school days will affect how we live and act after we graduate. 12. K. Ostrander watches closely as her friends straighten out her collar. 13. Senior guys gather in front of the cafeteria to remember old times. 14. Now, this is a group decision on how everybody looks. 15. Helping the graduate to make sure she doesn't fall. 16. Cum Laude students are asked to stand to let them be noticed. 17. Mr. Strait makes one of his last speeches to the class. 18. Everyone gathers to say goodbye and to cry.
